

The Groningen Lectures on Modes of Reasoning

Chair Group on History and Theory of International Relations, Dpt. of International Relations and International Organizations

Globe, Governmentality, Geometrics

Prof. Stuart Elden, University of Warwick

Date: 23 September 2014, 17-19
 Place: Senate Room, Academy Building
 Attendance: free

Stuart Elden is Professor of Political Theory and Geography at University of Warwick and editor of Environment and Planning D: Society and Space. He is author of five books, including, most recently, The Birth of Territory (University of Chicago Press, 2013) which won the Association of American Geographers Meridian book award for outstanding scholarly work in Geography. He is currently writing a book for Polity Press entitled Foucault's Last Decade.

The Groningen Lectures on Modes of Reasoning

The Groningen Lectures on Modes of Reasoning were established in 2013 as a space for world leading intellectuals to reflect on historical and contemporary modes of reasoning order and power. Speakers are invited to address the topic from their own area of expertise and to engage with questions from a selected audience. Lectures are held annually. For more information, please visit: www.rug.nl/let/htir-research

For more information, visit: www.rug.nl/let/htir-research